To be acceptable, the curriculum must:

- Be in a school of engineering with at least one curriculum accredited by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET) as a professional engineering curriculum; or
- Include differential and integral calculus and courses (more advanced than first year science or engineering) in five of the seven areas of engineering science or physics:
 - (1) statics, dynamics;
 - (2) strength of materials (stress-strain relationships);
 - (3) fluid mechanics, hydraulics;
 - (4) thermodynamics;
 - (5) electrical fields and circuits;
 - (6) nature and properties of materials (relating particle and aggregate structure of properties);
 - (7) any other comparable area of fundamental engineering science or physics, such as optics, heat transfer, soil mechanics, or electronics.

2. Alternative Method of Meeting Basic Requirements:

If you do not meet the basic engineering requirements above, you may qualify if you have an equivalent combination of experience and education that meets the requirements listed below.

Candidates may substitute for the basic requirement of at least 4 years of college-level education, training and/or technical experience that furnished (1) a thorough knowledge of the physical and mathematical sciences underlying professional engineering and (2) a good understanding, both theoretical and practical of the branches of engineering. This knowledge and understanding must be equivalent to that provided by a full 4-year professional engineering curriculum with respect to (a) knowledge, skills, and abilities required of the position to be filled; and (b) the ability to develop and progress in a career as a professional engineer in the specialty field. The adequacy of such background must be demonstrated by one of the following:

Professional Registration: Current registration as a professional engineer in any state, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico or Guam. Absent other means of qualifying for engineering positions, those candidates who achieved such registration by means other than a written test (for example, state grandfather or eminence provisions) are eligible only for positions that are within or closely related to the specialty field of the registration. For example, a candidate who attains registration through a State Board eminence, provision as manufacturing engineer typically would be eligible for manufacturing engineering positions.

Written Test: Evidence of having successfully passed the Engineer-in-Training (EIT) examination or the written test required for professional registration which is administered by the Boards of Engineering Examiners in the various states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Guam.

Because of the diversity in kind and quality of BET programs, graduates of the BET programs are required to complete at least one year of additional education or highly technical work experience of such nature as to provide reasonable assurance of the possession of the knowledge, skills, and abilities required for professional engineering competence. The adequacy of this background must be demonstrated by passing the EIT examination.

Specified Academic Courses: Successful completion in an accredited college or university of at least 60 semester hours of courses acceptable for credit towards a B.S. in professional engineering, in the physical, mathematical, and engineering sciences. These must have included the courses specified in the basic requirements above. The courses must also be fully acceptable towards meeting the requirements of a professional engineering curriculum as described in the basic requirements.

Related Curriculum: Successful completion in an accredited college of a full 4-year or longer related curriculum leading to a bachelors degree in engineer technology or in an appropriate professional field, for example, physics, chemistry, architecture, computer science (not computer programming), mathematics, hydrology, or geology, may be accepted in lieu of a degree in engineering provided you have at least one year of professional engineering
